

D&O LIMITS INCREASING

Directors and Officers Liability exposures are up and claims are increasing. This article talks about the trend to increase limits on D&O coverage as companies recognize their heightened level of risk. Larger numbers of clients are purchasing Side A coverage also. The D&O marketplace is constantly evolving and it is important to review limit adequacy and program structure on a regular basis.

The Executive Liability team at Van Gilder is prepared and available to review policies and discuss coverage issues with current and prospective insureds. Contact us and let us know how we can help.

> 100 years
of building
relationships
of trust